

VISION 2020: The Right to Sight – INDIA

Scientific Program for Continuing Medical Education (CME)

Community Ophthalmology

Venue: Suraj Eye Institute, Nagpur

Day/Date: Saturday, 17th April 2010

Time: 1700 – 2000 Hours (3 hours)

Min	Time	Topic	Speaker
5	1700 - 1705	Welcome Address	Dr. GV Rao
Symposium I:		Moderator: Dr Rahul Deshpande
10	1705 - 1715	VISION 2020: Opportunities for Ophthalmologists – countdown to 2020	Dr. Sara Varughese
10	1715 – 1725	A Model of sustainable inclusive plan for eye care in municipal corporations in India	Mr Aseem Gupta, Nagpur Municipal Commissioner
10	1725 - 1735	The District Health Society: Current Practice and future plans for Blindness Control	Mr Pravin Darade, Collector of Nagpur
5	1735 - 1740	Status of Blindness Control Programme in Nagpur	Dr Thete
15	1740 - 1755	The National Strategy for Control of Blindness: (1) Existing Barriers and Time Bound Solutions for Grant in Aid, and (2) How can Private Practitioners be involved in the National Program for Control of Blindness?	Dr. AS Rathore
40	1755 - 1835	Discussion & interaction
Symposium II:		Moderator: Dr. GV Rao
10	1835 – 1845	Comprehensive Community Eye Care Delivery	Dr Vikas Mahatme
10	1845 – 1855	Corneal Blindness (Eye Banking) - Challenges and Opportunities	Mr. G Ganesh
10	1855 – 1905	Diabetic Retinopathy. The problem of India and strategies for successful Control	Dr. Taraprasad Das and Dr. Vinay Nangia
10	1905 – 1915	A proposed model of conduct for quality eye care in operating rooms	Dr. RD Ravindran
10	1915 – 1925	INGO initiatives in India	Dr GV Rao
30	1925 - 1955	Discussion & interaction
5	1955 - 2000	Vote of Thanks	Dr Vinay Nangia
	2000 onwards	Dinner	